Sherry K Open Studio Debut

Open Studio returns for its ninth season as WNIT's signature production to spotlight the arts, entertainment and fine dining in Michiana. Sherry K will be a featured guest on the show, with a taping of a live performance on July 17th. Air time is TBA, but you'll be the first to know! Visit WNIT/Open Studio to find out more about the show.

Chicago at the Morris

Sherry K, along with other local musicians, had the wonderful opportunity to perform with the touring production of Chicago, the musical, at the Morris Performing Arts Center recently. A satire on corruption in the administration of criminal justice, Chicago is based on a play of the same name by reporter Maurine Dallas Watkins, based on actual criminals and crimes on which she reported. The music is reminiscent of a vaudeville stage show, which made it an absolute delight for Sherry to perform!

Did Someone Say Cornbread?

Just as you thought Sherry K couldn't find time in her busy performance schedule to do anything else, along came a true culinary venture! Along with 9 other finalists, Sherry was chosen, out of over 1500 contestants, to participate in the National Cornbread Cook-Off. Set in the foothills of southern Tennessee, the finals of the cook-off, sponsored by Martha White and Lodge Cast Iron, took place in South Pittsburg, Tenn. The challenge? Finding who could make the best main dish cornbread recipe in the United States prepared with a Martha White Cornmeal product and cooked in Lodge cast iron cookware. The ten competitors served up quite a bit of competition as judges from across the country judged delicious meals, including Sherry K's Garlicky Shrimp and Spinach Cornbread. Although Sherry didn't win, the experience was very unique and a lot of fun. From the moment the announcer said "Ladies, start your ovens", the event was filled with spine tingling excitement. "BRAVO! That CD is wonderful! So wonderful in fact that I would like to place an order for 12 more. Decided "Sunday Best" would be a great Christmas gift for 12 of our family and friends."

"I wanted to tell you how much I like your new album 'Sunday Best'. You show your talent in all musical styles. Tell Vickie that the clarinet sounds great also. I have been listening to it over and over – your best yet. "

"On my way into work, I was listening to your new CD. It sure made the drive more enjoyable. The CDs will make great Christmas gifts!!! Thanks for hearing tunes and rhythms, most others don't hear or feel. Appreciate your talent so much."

This is what they're saying about Sherry K's newest release Sunday Best:

Hymns and Spirituals Freshly Pressed. Recorded at the Gaither Studios, this disc is loaded with fun---these are not your Grandma's hymns! Well, actually, they are, but with a delightfully invigorating toss through the spin cycle to keep them fresh and exciting. Who's talking about Sherry K now?

Joseph J. Schultz, at Amazon.com,
has this to say about
"A Whole New Woman":

"I first heard Sherry K live in a small venue, and she blew me away with only a piano. I own both this CD and Westbound, and have given both as gifts.

Both are great, and take advantage of full (yet not over-produced) instrumentation, but this one moves me more. Rarely have I heard modern instrumental music that communicates such specific feeling and ...narrative. Unlike way-too-many pretentious modern instrumentals (and poems), the titles actually provide an insertion point to the work, and the story unfolds from there. These are definitely not 'background' instrumental pieces – they are as engaging and rewarding and demanding of your attention as good short stories, and you'll feel better for listening!

PS: If you get a chance to see her live, do it!"
