Say It Isn't So...

Can it be that Sherry K's newest CD has finally arrived and will be available at an online record store near you? The answer is YES!!! Sunday Best: Hymns and Spirituals Freshly Pressed is hot off the iron and will be at all your favorite sites, such as Apple iTunes, cdbaby.com and of course, www.sherryk.com (see attached photo). And to kick off the big event...

Benefit Concert

On Saturday, July 8, at 6:30 p.m., Sherry K will be giving a concert at Penn High School. All donations received during the performance will be given to the Alzheimer's Services of Northern Indiana. The program is an eclectic mix of down-home gospel, classical, blues and jazz, and will include selections from Sherry K's new release, Sunday Best: Hymns and Spirituals Freshly Pressed. What's a 'Sherry K' concert like? Her endearing personality, fun sense of humor, and impeccable keyboard skills make the whole musical experience a memorable one. No musical stone goes unturned! Will you laugh? Absolutely. Will you cry? Possibly. Will you be bored? Never! Joining Sherry will be other area instrumentalists and studio musicians from Indianapolis as well. A reception will follow. The school is located at 56100 Bittersweet Rd., Mishawaka, Indiana, and the auditorium is at entrance C. For more information, please call 574.291.9044. Come and join us for an evening of spectacular music and the wonderful opportunity to support a worthwhile cause!

Artist-in-Residence, 2006 – Sherry K brings her piano and composition expertise to the JGSC

The 2006 Artist in Residence program at John Glenn School Corporation focused on the musical arts. Professional pianist and composer, Sherry K, visited the elementary schools to share with the children insights into the career of a musical composer and performer. Her workshops, which were presented to all classes in grades K–6 at some point throughout her visiting week, focused on a variety of musical styles and the processes she uses in putting together a new composition and bringing it all the way to the point of performance. Singers "Reach High"

Composition reflects theme of convention

By PABLO ROS

South Bend Tribune Correspondent

BUCHANAN -- They didn't nail it on one take, but eventually the 20 or so singers got what they wanted.

The singers -- women ranging from young students to adults -- were recording the song "Reach High" at Gene Michael Productions in Buchanan.

Written by local musician Sherry Klinedinst, the song was recorded for release as part of a compilation CD for "Mix in '06," a national women's convention to be held in Indianapolis from June 21–25, 2006.

Students from John Young, North Liberty Elementary, Urey Middle School in Walkerton and Saint Mary's College were part of the chorus.

"It's a song about ..." Elise Knaack picked her words carefully. "... We all dream of big things, and we can reach our dreams if we work together."

Knaack, a seventh-grader at John Young Middle School in Mishawaka, was the group's soloist.

"The song will encourage other people to pursue their dreams," said

Maggie Shoue, a sixth-grader at North Liberty Elementary.
